Amend the Redemption of Rent (Ireland) Act, 1891. A.D. 1893.

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

- 5 1. No application under the Redemption of Rent (Ireland) Act, 1891, (in this Act referred to as the principal Act) made by any person who is a grantee under a fee farm grant, and in occupation thereunder, shall be disallowed on the ground that there is not any legal reversion or estate expectant on the determination of such 10 grant, or the grantee's estate thereby granted, subsisting in the grantor in such grant or in the persons deriving title under him, and the principal Act shall apply to every fee farm grant to which it would have applied if such grant had been an agreement to hold land within the meaning of section three of the Landlord and
 15 Tenant Law Amendment Act (Ireland) 1860, or had been executed after the date upon which such last-mentioned Act came into operation.
2. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the Redemption of Rent (Ireland) Amendment Act, 1893, and the principal Act shall be read as if this Act were incorporated therein.
- Extension of provisions for applications under principal Act.
- Short title, &c.
